Presentation Grading Rubric

Evaluation	Emerging 34% of Points	Developing 67% of Points	Mastering 100% of Points
Organization/ Submission 20 Points	● There is no clear plan for the organization of information. ● Lacks the required amount of slides.	● Some information is logically sequenced. An occasional slide or item of information seems out of place. ● Is close to the required amount of slides.	● Information is organized in a clear, logical way. It is easy to anticipate the type of material that might be on the next slide. ● Contains the required amount of slides. ● Submitted to the correct place, in a readable format, before the due date.
Presentation 20 Points	● The presenter skips over information and does not know what is on the slides.	● The presentation is not ready and speakers include topics that are wildly off topic.	● The presentation is presented to the class in a clear and concise manner. ● If a group project, each member has a speaking part.
Use of Graphics/Pictures 20 Points	● The presentation lacks any graphics or they include unrelated/ inappropriate content.	● A few graphics are attractive but a few do not seem to support the theme/content of the presentation.	● All graphics are attractive (size and colors) and support the theme/content of the presentation.

Originality 20 Points	● Presentation has no originality, people's ideas and/or graphics and shows very little attempt at original thought.	● Presentation shows an attempt at originality and inventiveness on a couple of slides.	● Presentation shows considerable originality and inventiveness. The content and ideas are presented in a unique and in an interesting way.
Quotation & Citation (When necessary) 20 Points	● The presentation includes some citations but may not include a final bibliography slide. ● Some nonacademic sources are cited.	● The paper contains a bibliography slide, but it has mistakes. ● Some nonacademic sources are used.	● Quotations and citations are cited on the final slide. ● Good academic sources are used.